Dear Prime Minister Sigurðardóttir,

Congratulations on the historic and far-reaching changes you have brought to Iceland. I would also like to congratulate you on your recent marriage to Jonina Leosdottir.

You are indeed a role model for supporters of human rights and marriage equality worldwide.

I am writing to you on behalf of Australian Marriage Equality. We are the only Australian organisation devoted entirely to achieving marriage equality, and the largest gay and lesbian human rights organisation in the Australia.

As I am sure you are aware, Australia has a new Prime Minister, and its first female Prime Minister, Julia Gillard. The purpose of this letter is to respectfully request that you write to our new Prime Minister expressing your views on the importance of marriage equality, both for your nation as a whole and for same-sex partners and their families. Such a letter would make a historic contribution to the campaign for same-sex marriage in Australia.
